Executive Director's Report

Executive Director Jannine Miller shared federal transportation updates, announcing new leadership at the Federal Highway and National Highway Traffic Safety Administrations. She confirmed Federal Transit Administration programs had not been affected by the federal funding lapse which began October 1.

Miller reported the Federal Transit Administration's required three-year review of ATL had cited only three preliminary findings out of 322 items reviewed, with final results expected by November 4. She praised the team's performance and attention to detail.

In closing, Miller introduced a streamlined funding process for Congestion Mitigation and Transportation Alternatives programs, with applications due October 31, supported regionally by the Atlanta Regional Commission.
