On behalf of the Committee Chair, Mr. Weyandt called for a motion to approve the agenda for today's meeting. Mr. Dickerson made the motion to approve, and Mr. Ver Steeg seconded the motion. The agenda was unanimously approved.

THIRD-PARTY APP PROVIDERS

A. MOOVIT

Paul Schiltgen, Frank Kopas and Perry Barnett with Moovit provided the Committee with an overview of the Moovit app and how the company is simplifying urban mobility around the world.

B. CITYMAPPER

Jonathan Ravenelle provided the Committee with an overview of City Mapper.

C. TRANSIT APP

Emily Gates with C. Transit App provided the Committee with an overview on the Transit app and what the company can offer the Atlanta region.

SCOOTER POLICY

Commissioner Tim Keane with the City of Atlanta provided an update on City of Atlanta's scooter policies. Mr. Keane advised that starting January 2019, the City created regulations that requires companies offering dockless devices to obtain an operating permit. The city had issued permits to 7 companies in 2019 with a total of about 12,000 devices. The renewal for those initial permits are due but the City extended the renewal deadline for a few months in order to give the City some time to start with a new permit process based on new guidelines. These guidelines also limit the number of permits that can be issued to 3 companies with a maximum number of devices of 6,000.

ATL REGIONAL TECHNOLOGY COMMITTEE WORK PROGRAM

Lori Sand provided the Committee with an overview on what projects the Committee should expect to hear about over the upcoming year, including the mobility app/mobility as a service (MaaS) solution, regional fare policy and the regional integrated technology plan.

GTFS and IMI UPDATE

Lori Sand provided the Committee an update on GTFS. ATL staff has received the first set of recommendations from the consulting team with the timeline as follows:
- March-May – GTFS recommendations for operators, implementation of recommendations and reassessment of data
- May – Regional recommendations and ATL workshop
- June – Final recommendations and final report

Lori also reported that there have been no recent updates on the IMI Grant.
